-<FH>- High Command News

Wing Zeros Corner Of Pwnage

- Well my fellow Foxhound brethren, I bid you all a due at least for now I told Dark dragon I will come back to lead the clan in 6 months to a year it could even be longer only time will tell but I will be back to lead the clan again.
- Some people don't seem to understand why I have left the clan, let me clear a few things up. Real life is demanding more and more time off me at the moment and I need to sort my life out I'm also doing very long hours at work which drain me and I don't think it's fair on any of you to have a inactive leader.
- I will still pop on the forums when I have some free time and if im on Xfire you only need to message me and il probably have a game or 2 with you guys like I said im not quitting Foxhound I just have more pressing matters at this current time which don't give me the time to lead such a amazing clan as Foxhound.
- The current High Command Structure for now Is As Follows:
 - 1st in command, Fleet Admiral -<FH>-Dark Dragon
 - 2nd in command, Fleet Admiral -<FH>-Elite Prime
 - 3rd in command Vice Fleet Admiral -<FH>-Sad Genie

Anyways, cya all in space keep kickin ass FHer's ;)

FH Wing Zero's Head Of Left 4 Dead Division Report

- Were doing pretty good to be honest, myself and -<FH>-Sovereign 002 pretty much have had it covered this past month and i have managed to recruit a new guy on steam and he has recruit Darth Parrot. The game is rife with new players, that could easily be convinced to join the good foxhound cause.
- Well before i handed in my resignation we had 4 members including myself, i want to leave sovereign 002 to lead this division and maybe close the DOW division as he himself has said there are pretty much no recruitment aspects in there? Unless he thinks he can handle both?
- Anyway it's all good we just need to recruit more in there as it has a vast amount of potential .

FH Fox's Head of Rainbow Six Vegas 1 & 2 Division's report

- None from me as this is my first day on the job, since the division fell apart a while back I'm going to treat this division like a new one.

Fox's random ramble corner

- Well me and Wing Zero had a chat and im taking over this division. There will be some changes and I'm hoping to pull this game back up out of the ground. I'm going to add a lot more information on the forum about the games, and hoping to get some new blood into the clan.
- There's not much i can say about the pc version as I have played the ps3 one and played many of the past Rainbow Six games so i do know my way around the games, and il do my best to make the division great once more.

FH Sovereign002's Head of Dow Division's report

- Things are still rather quiet on the Dow front, seeing as Mad Mikey left, our division has lost part of its presence on Dow It's hard to compete with the already existing clans there, what's more, a lot of people seem cynical towards clans, I guess it's up to us to show that Foxhound isn't just a retarded clan like all the others.

- Dow is a very active game, so not all the news is bad and the Dow Pro mod will also help increasing activity.
- FH Piti seems to have become active again, and Ki from TRF (The Rogue Forums) has gotten Dow. I've played quite a lot of games lately, trying to improve my skill and being relatively good at it. Yet I haven't really played against random people, only friends from Parlancia Forums and TRF.
- We have three recruits, I'm currently trying to get them for a game before they decide to actually join us, so we will see on that one.

Sov's random ramble corner

- Well, my Left4Dead addiction has only gotten worse! The main problem I had before were friends not wanting to play L4D, saying they were bored of it already. I'll see what I can do to recruit some people for L4D, if we have a few of our people there it shouldn't be too hard. That and playing with randoms has its downsides however, now that Foxhound endorses L4D and Wing has the game I can play all I want!
- Ki Adi Mundi, the TRF founder seems interested in a sort of official alliance with Foxhound, I plan to have a chat with him to see what exactly he has in mind, and see if we can arrange something.
- A lot of TRF'ers (The Rogue Forums) play Dow with me, so it might be good. But we'll see about that in the future. This was Sov, reporting random news, take care ya'll and keep kicking ass!
- So, all FH'ers, get Left4Dead and Join Us On Steam!!

FH Sad Genie's Recruitment report

- Well it's been a busy month for recruitment.
- We've seen a brilliant amount of new members join the forums and wear the Foxhound tags in game, In total, i personally have interviewed 7 new members which is excellent progress.

- Foxhound members are being absolutely brilliant at recruiting, which I thank you all for. Sovereign 002 and Torark I want to thank you guys in particular. You're always working your asses off in game to recruit, and it hasn't gone unnoticed.
- Now, I don't want to put a negative spin on this, FH has other divisions apart from Dawn Of War (Dow) and Star Trek Bridge Commander (BC) Unreal Tournament (UT) is what I would to see more recruiting in, and in this new year, i would like to see some improvements.
Also, CoD4, Whoever's leading it, I'd like to some new members in there.
- The 360 division is great at the moment, and to say the H.O.D is on LOA, then I'm impressed at how many 360 players have heard of FH so, brilliant work Celtic fox keep it up!

Thanks again for keeping me working hard interviewing these guys, especially at 3/4am in the morning.

Regards,

Vice Fleet Admiral & Acting Head Of Recruitment

Head of security news articles:

FH Security Report:

- Hello FH. I am sorry for the delayed report but I have had a bunch of school work. But now that I am on brake I have lots of time. Anyway As you can tell we are gaining lots of new members. We have to be careful about this. It is hard to talk to everyone thoroughly enough to see if they are legit.
- Though I am working on it it takes time. Any way I don't have any security breaches to report. As always if you have heard something or know something is going on report it to me or other admin. Also post it on this topic for all of the members to be aware of. A good friend of mine has mentioned to me that people on other sites are using my "applefox" name.
- In fact I have be beginning to notice the applefox name is being taken up quickly. Some even using my logo. I am rapidly signing up for all of the legit sites I can find before anyone else can take my name. If you see this happening please let me know. Also there was someone on skype who called themselves applefoxx shortly after I confronted them

The account was terminated. Be sure when you are talking to someone on FH that they are actually part of FH.

FH Security News:

- Well foxhound has been hacked, and brought back new mods and security measures have been put into place as well as banning all Chinese IP's from Foxhound as it was a Chinese IP that attacked our site. Hopefully we will not be hacked again by the malicious code sent to seek and destroy PHP software.

Head of diplomacy news articles:

FH Allies News:

- Foxhound has a number of strong alliances with other clans, but our most popular ally is the Federation Empires.
- Federation Empires are lead by President James Morriana/ FE Enterprise/Novascotchia.
- Another one of our close allies Phoenix Xtreme which is currently being led by PX Kern as a change of command from PX Iceman need contacting by myself soon.

FH Sad Genie's Diplomacy report.

- Foxhound has been very active this past month, with the hacking, spamming and rebirth of the forums as well as our increase in the influx of members, not to mention the war in Star Trek Bridge Commander with IKF & SOJ id say were doing pretty well.
- I have been looking at clans that are already established in the games that Foxhound support, and could possibly support in the future for the good of Foxhound ill keep you all posted.
- I have contacted a 360 gaming clan, who are very strong in COD. So hopefully they will contact me soon about my offer.
- I have asked to speak with Starfleet Command again, but they have not gotten back to me yet
- I have asked SOJ Razzor if he wishes to make our friendship an official relationship, which he has accepted discussions are in progress watch the diplomacy section of the forums for more recent updates.

Also, I have been in contact with the {UFP} We are currently talking of a NAP, or MPP with this clans, as they share a lot of similarities with FH, and are about the same age so it's looking promising.

So all in all, a busy, but good month.

Regards,

Vice Fleet Admiral & Acting Head Of Diplomacy
